Melvin Mitcham

Melvin Mitcham is a native of St. Kitts, where he learned about God at an early age. His parents instilled strong spiritual beliefs, which led him to accept Christ at a young age. His love for God and people led him to be an active member of the Wesleyan Holiness Church, serving in various leadership positions. Locally, he served as a Sunday school teacher, youth & men's treasurer, vice president, and men's president. On a district level, he served as district youth president & treasurer and men's president and treasurer.

Tragedy struck early in Melvin's life with the passing of his mother, a loss that drew him even closer to God and strengthened his commitment to serving the Family of God. His unwavering faith led him to the United Kingdom, where he continues to serve as a pastor-teacher, never allowing challenging circumstances to shake his resolve. He is grateful for the wonderful people he is connected with within the church and is dedicated to fulfilling his purpose.

Jeremiah 1:5 says, 'Before I formed thee in the belly, I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.' In humility, Melvin trusts in God's plan, saying yes to the unknown journey ahead, with a desire to positively influence as many people as possible.
